

I have a strong objection to the weakening of the do not call list by allowing banks and other organizations to call. In fact, I would like the do not call list law expanded. When I say do not call, I do not want solicitations of ANY kind.